THE COMING OF BRYAN.

Will Aid The Academy In A Much Needed Improvement.

The St. Johnsbury Academy benefit given by Mr. Bryan in the Colonial Theatre May 22d, is attracting wide attention. Those desiring seats will do well to select them as soon as the tickets are offered for sale.

The sale begins Thursday morning, May 4th, at Bingham's Drug store, Main street, and at Asselin Brothers' store on Railroad street, at 7.30 o'clock. No tickets have or will be sold nor seats reserved prior to that date to residents of St. Johnsbury. Four hundred seats in the hall will be reserved until May 15th for out of town people. All other seats will be assigned in order of application received of the managers.

Mr. Bryan comes solely for the benefit of the Academy. The proceeds will be used to remodel the Academy auditorium. The platform should be reconstructed, a new floor is needed, the walls should be painted, and a first-class stage should be erected. The auditorium is the intellectual and social center of the school, and must be put in a condition to best serve its purpose. This benefit will give all an opportunity to further the interests of the young people and the school.
